

New Jersey Hills Media Group

Morris Music Men to give benefit concert Sunday

jlent Jan 10, 2018 0

HANOVER TWP. - The Morris Music Men chorus presents their second concert to benefit Employment Horizons at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, March 4 in the Parish Hall at Notre Dame of Mount Carmel Church in Cedar Knolls.

Admission is $10 and can be purchased online at www.emhorizons.org or by calling Emily Mills at 973-538-8822 ext. 243.

The Morris Music Men are an a cappella group of men of all ages and all walks of life who share one thing in common: an irresistible urge to sing. They are based out of Chatham, and belong to the Barbershop Harmony Society.

Their repertoire includes crowd pleasers such as "Come Fly with Me," "For the Longest Time," "In the Still of the Night," and "Country Roads." The concert benefits the people and programs at Employment Horizons.

To learn more about the services being offered to the business community, visit www.emhorizons.org.

Hanover Eagle

Employment Horizons hosts 'Taste of Spring' in Whippany

jlent Mar 2, 2018 0

HANOVER TWP. – Employment Horizons and Chef Eric LeVine, chef/partner at Morris Tap & Grill and Paragon Tap & Table, will host their annual “A Taste of Spring” event on Wednesday, April 11 at the Birchwood Manor in Whippany.

The event features small plates from chefs/restaurants including the Auld Shebeen Pub, Ava’s Cupcakes, Birds Eye, Hibiscus, Ninety Acres, Piattino, Pig & Prince, Rock Island Lake Club & Bear Brook Valley, Rod’s Steak & Seafood Grille & GK’s Red Dog Tavern, Smoke Rise Village Inn, South Street Creamery, and Wegmans.

Sponsorships include Beverage Sponsor Solix Inc., and Culinary Sponsors Birds Eye Foods, FirstEnergy Foundation, and Mandelbaum Salsburg P.C. Entertainment and music will be provided by WMTR/WDHA.

The event will feature fundraiser games and giveaways. Event proceeds benefit the Culinary Arts Training Program at Employment Horizons, a premier not-for-profit agency providing comprehensive employment, training and job placement services to persons with disabilities and other disadvantages in the greater Morris County area.

To attend A Taste of Spring or for more information about the event or Employment Horizons, visit www.emhorizons.org or contact Maria Florio at 973-538-8822 ext. 240 or mariaflorio@ehorizons.org.

Hanover Eagle

Employment Horizons hosts spring clothing drive in Cedar Knolls

jent Apr 5, 2018 0

HANOVER TWP. – Clothing and fashion accessories for men, women and children will be collected as Employment Horizons holds its annual spring clothing drive from Wednesday, April 18 to Friday, April 20.

The clothing drives offers an opportunity to spring into spring while benefiting area residents with disabilities.

Items to be collected also include stuffed animals and hard toys, such as dolls and action figures below 14 inches in size, as well as household linens such as blankets, sheets, and curtains but no fabric scraps or carpet.

All items should be placed in well-tied plastic bags. Shoes, boots, and sneakers are also accepted.

No single shoes, winter coats or winter boots will be accepted. All donated items will be distributed to needy families overseas. The clothing will be turned over to a company that will in turn pay Employment Horizons for each pound collected.

The goal is to collect 5,000 pounds.

Bags may be dropped off at between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. April 19 to 21 at Employment Horizons at 10 Ridgedale Avenue in Cedar Knolls. Donations are to be placed in the box truck marked "Clothing Drive" located in the Employment Horizons rear parking lot. Items may not be dropped off prior to these dates.

Don't forget, Employment Horizons also has an on-site book bin where books, textbooks, CDs, DVDs and video games can be dropped off. Encyclopedias, magazines, VHS tapes or water damaged items will not be accepted.

Employment Horizons is a local not-for-profit organization which serves individuals with disabilities, empowering them to earn a paycheck and live as productive citizens in the greater Morris County area.

For more information, contact Maria Florio, director of Community Relations, at 973-538-8822 ext. 240 or at mariaflorio@ehorizons.org

Golfers Tee Off for People with Disabilities

By Frank L. Cahill - Jul 5, 2018

Foursome from Bayer. From left are Bill Colacurcio (Alan Baird Industries, Golf Classic Chair), Frank Stefano, Lochlan Dougherty, and John Rotondo

Foursome from Title Sponsor, My Limo. Dan Farley, Bob Lull, Howard Gogel (My Limo and Employment Horizons' Trustee), and Don Adami

MORRIS COUNTY — Employment Horizons kicked off their 13th Annual Golf Classic at Spring Brook Country Club in Morristown on June 18. Over one hundred golfers registered for this event with proceeds benefiting the programs and services of Employment Horizons.

Matthew Putts, Employment Horizons' Executive Director and Employment Horizons' Trustee Howard Gogel of Title Sponsor My Limo

Foursome from Associate Sponsor, Vision Real Estate Partners. Steve Feinberg, Ryan Fraser, Kubby Tischler, and Jose Mayoral

The Golf Classic had several corporate supporters. My Limo, a division of Gogel Enterprises, was the Title while the Associate Sponsor was Vision Real Estate Partners. The golfers enjoyed a beautiful day of golf and participated in contests. Lunch and dinner were also provided with a silent auction and a 50/50 raffle. Golfers also had the chance to win a luxury car provided by Audi Bridgewater & Audi Mendham at the Hole-in-One Contest sponsored by Morristown Airport and Safari Telecom.

Employment Horizons provides job skills training and placement services to hundreds of individuals with disabilities and other barriers to employment each year. To learn more about Employment Horizons or to get involved, please contact Director of Development Lisa Montalbano at lmontalbano@ehorizons.org or click here.

Kevin Gogel, Lisa Montalbano (Employment Horizons, Director of Development) & Jason Gogel

Florham Park Eagle

Employment Horizons to host recognition dinner in Florham Park

Oct 4, 2018  0

FLORHAM PARK - Employment Horizons, based in Cedar Knolls, will celebrate their years of service to the greater Morris County community providing vocational training and services to individuals with disabilities at its annual Recognition Dinner from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 18 at the Brooklake Country Club at 139 Brooklake Road.

The fundraising dinner recognizes the achievements of program participants and members of the local community who support the agency's mission. Employment Horizons helps to empower people with disabilities to become independent, productive members of society.

Among this year's honorees are the Mayo Performing Arts Center in Morristown, receiving the Employer of the Year award; Kiehl's Since 1851 is the Fulfillment Customer of the Year; Solix, Inc. will receive the Corporate Champion Award; Kevin White will receive the President's Award; and Barbara Klein will be awarded the William Huber Achievement recognition. L'Oreal USA Senior Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion Angela Guy will serve as this year's honorary chair.

Founded in 1957 with just eight participants, the organization now assists more than 400 adults with disabilities with finding and maintaining employment each year. The organization has various vocational programs including janitorial training, culinary training within Café Horizons (a fully functioning cafeteria), and a soon to open Home Health Aide certification program. Utilizing its core business programs to provide work opportunities in the greater Morris County area, Employment Horizons continues to make progress in removing stigmas that create barriers in achieving their dreams.

This year's major event sponsors are the Walsh Family Fund of the Community Foundation of New Jersey as Honoree Benefactor, and Dan Collins and Christine Conti-Collins as Presentation Benefactor. Local businesses can show their support by purchasing an ad in the ad journal, attending the dinner or donating items for the dinner's ticket or silent auctions.

To purchase raffle tickets, attend or support the Annual Dinner, or to obtain more information about Employment Horizons, visit sitehorizons.org or contact Lisa Montalbano at 973-538-8822 ext. 212 or lmontalbano@ehorizons.org.

Hanover Eagle

Employment Horizons Bowl-A-Thon Sunday, Oct. 28

jlent Oct 24, 2018 0

EAST HANOVER TWP. – Employment Horizons will host its annual Bowl-A-Thon from noon to 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 28 at Hanover Lanes in East Hanover.

The fundraiser features a Halloween theme complete with costumed bowlers and prizes. Sponsored by Mandelbaum Salsburg, P.C., Matthijssen Inc., Rubenstein Properties and the Steven and Beverly Rubenstein Charitable Foundation, the Bowl-A-Thon supports the Cedar Knolls-based nonprofit agency that provides job training and placement services to individuals with disabilities.

Additional sponsors include Smith-Sondy Asphalt Construction, the Miller Family, Bayonne Glass and Paylocity.

The fundraiser is one of the most anticipated of the year for the organization's program participants, who start planning their costumes weeks ahead in anticipation of the event. The costume contest is always a treat, with many vying for the top spots each year! Some awards last year went to Scariest Costume, Best Partner Costume and Best Homemade Costume. The event provides working people with disabilities a chance to celebrate with their coworkers, while raising money to enhance job skills training.

Anyone can join in the fun while supporting the agency's mission by purchasing tickets online for $20 per bowler.

There are also opportunities to become a lane, lunch, or costume contest sponsor. Those unable to bowl can also show their support by joining the Bowl-A-Thon luncheon for $5 or by making a Bowl-A-Thon donation. Checks may be mailed to Employment Horizons, 10 Ridgedale Ave., Cedar Knolls, N.J. 07927.

Registration is required. For further information, visit www.ehorizons.org or contact Emily Mills, Data Management specialist at 973-538-8822, ext. 243 or e-mail emills@ehorizons.org.

Employment Horizons has Successful Month of Fundraising

By Frank L. Cahill - Nov 14, 2018

👁 26

Matthew Putts (Employment Horizons – Left), Lee Kaloidis (Mayo Performing Arts Center – center) & Lisa Montalbano (Employment Horizons – right). Photo Courtesy of Michelle Zavallas

Best Family Costume Winners (Yarbough Family as Dominos); Most Creative Costume Winner (Alek Rodriguez as a Pope), Employment Horizons Executive Director Matt Putts, Scariest Costume Winner (Mark Kasiski as a Zombie). Photo courtesy of Nisha Mistry

CEDAR KNOLLS — This October, Employment Horizons hosted two fundraising events to support their programs and to recognize National Disability Employment Awareness Month. On Thursday, October 18, Employment Horizons celebrated 61 years of success at its Annual Recognition Dinner at Brooklake Country Club in Florham Park.

The dinner featured a 50/50 raffle, a basket auction, and a silent auction. All proceeds benefit the programs here at Employment Horizons. Angela Guy, Senior Vice President, Diversity & Inclusion at L’Oreal USA, served as Honorary Chair, and honorees Mayo Performing Arts Center for Employer of the Year; Kiehl’s Since 1851 for Fulfillment Customer of the Year; and Solix, Inc. for the Corporate Champion Award.

The President’s Award was awarded to Kevin White, an Employment Horizons program participant, and the William Huber Achievement Award was given to program participant Barbara Klien. Kevin has found success in his career at ShopRite, while Barbara has made a name for herself at Schindler Elevator Corp.

On Sunday, October 28, Employment Horizons secured Hanover Lanes in East Hanover to celebrate Halloween with the annual Halloween Bowl-A-Thon. Over 130 attendees enjoyed an afternoon of fun, food, and a costume contest, and raised funds to support employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities. Title Sponsors included Matthjissen, Inc., Mandelbaum Salsburg, P.C., Rubenstein Properties, and the Steven and Beverly Rubenstein Charitable Foundation, Inc.

Honorary Chair Angela Guy (L'Oreal). Photo courtesy of Michelle Zevallos

Employment Horizons thanks all of our sponsors, donors, attendees, staff and volunteers for making the Annual Recognition Dinner and the Halloween Bowl-A-Thon a success. Founded in 1957, Employment Horizons, Inc. is the premier not-for-profit agency providing high-quality competitively priced services to the business community. These services provide work opportunities for hundreds of people with special needs. To learn more click here.

New Jersey Hills Media Group

Hanover Eagle

Employment Horizons October events raised funds bestowed honors

jlent Nov 15, 2018 0

HANOVER TWP. – Employment Horizons hosted two fundraising events in October to support their programs and to recognize National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

On Thursday, Oct. 18, Employment Horizons celebrated 61 years of success at its Annual Recognition Dinner at Brooklake Country Club in Florham Park. The dinner featured several fundraising games such as a 50/50 raffle, a basket auction and silent auction. All proceeds benefit the programs at Employment Horizons.

Angela Guy, senior vice president, Diversity & Inclusion at L’Oreal USA, served as honorary chair. Honorees were Mayo Performing Arts Center for Employer of the Year; Kiehl’s Since 1851 for Fulfillment Customer of the Year; and Solix, Inc. for the Corporate Champion Award.

ANGELA GUY

The President's Award was awarded to Kevin White, an Employment Horizons program participant, and the William Huber Achievement Award was given to program participant Barbara Klien. White has found success in his career at ShopRite, while Klien has made a name for herself at Schindler Elevator Corp.

On Sunday, Oct. 28, Employment Horizons secured Hanover Lanes in East Hanover to celebrate Halloween with the annual Halloween Bowl-A-Thon.

More than 130 attendees enjoyed an afternoon of fun, food, and a costume contest to raise funds to support employment opportunities for individuals with disabilities.

Title sponsors included Matthjissen Inc., Mandelbaum Salsburg, P.C., Rubenstein Properties and the Steven and Beverly Rubenstein Charitable Foundation Inc.

Founded in 1957, Employment Horizons Inc. is a premier not-for-profit agency providing high-quality competitively priced services to the business community. These services provide work opportunities for hundreds of people with special needs.

To learn more, visit ehorizons.org.